While attending a 20th high school reunion in Alabama, Blain Harrington loses the love of his life in the blink of an eye. He soon realizes that everything is not always as it seems as he sets out on a journey for answers. What do you do when the world you thought you knew crumbles around you? How do you piece it back together? MISSING is gay fiction that plays with genres as Blain's world is turned upside down. Some call it mystery - others romance: read for yourself and see how you would label what is missing in Mr. Harrington's world. MISSING has been adapted for the screen as the film HE IS GONE.
