That's good: business is growing and you have more people than ever to keep track of. You need a CRM. A Customer Relationship Management app to help you keep track of everyone. First, though, you need to learn a bit about CRMs. That's where this guide comes in. This guide will teach you what CRMs are for, and will walk you through the best features of dozens of the most popular CRM apps. It'll then help you find ways to put a CRM to use in your business with tips from other teams and Zapier automations to simplify your work.
