

Reflux 101: A Parents Guide to Gastroesophageal Reflux

Fussy baby? Picky eater? Colic? Frequent night waking? Reflux 101: A Parents Guide to Gastroesophageal Reflux by Jan Gambino, M.Ed is a comprehensive guide to caring for an infant or child with Gastroesophageal Reflux guiding parents through a difficult season of parenting. The book is written by a parent, for parents offering information on diet, positioning and medical treatments and practical tips on sleep, feeding, and coping. If your infant or child has reflux, this is a must have book. Parents often wish their child came with a set of instructions. This is especially true when you have a baby or child with Gastroesophageal Reflux. Jan Gambino, the mother of two children with reflux wrote the guidebook she wished existed when her children were struggling with reflux. Whether your baby has Gastroesophageal Reflux (GER) or your toddler or child has Gastroesophageal Reflux Disease (GERD), parenting a child with reflux can test the patience and coping skills of even the most seasoned parent. The book offers information and support to help parents cope with reflux.

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
