

Voluntary Starvation: A Personal Account of Anorexia

At age 45, I found myself inhabiting the bizarre world of anorexia nervosa. So begins Jane Woods journey through illness and recovery. This is a personal account, but in its intent and authenticity is a transpersonal story with a complex, human message about family, parenting, anorexia, autism, creative expression, and heredity. excellent blend of the intellectual and emotional. This work could have a number of audiences: professionals in the field(s) of autism, addictions, eating disorders and family counseling; patients in programs; and anyone looking for familiar or helpful stories with which to relate or to learn from. Michael Kenyon, author The Beautiful Children, 2009

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
