

the wanted past and the un wanted present

Wanted past and the un wanted present is a story of not just a man whom I met in a blue moon but many other elderly people like him living in the same city or might be a different one but their names and faces are different but the story is the same as of this man and other difference is that their stories remain un heard and might not be heard ever The objective of writing this is to put some light on the harm that we do to our parents knowingly and making them suffer of things they dont deserve and ignoring the things that they actually deserve like love care respect the three thing any person of any age wants in his life. We get so busy growing old that we tend to forget that our parents are growing old and in our growth process we tend to forget that we are required to the same of what they are doing for us now. An elder person might not want to go out movie or eat at Dominoz or pizza hut everyday rather what they want is a stability. Yes stability in their lives. Do you remember when you were young and you broke something they did not beat you up rather they ignored your mistakes practically speaking the same goes for them as well
