

Launch It!: How to Create, Launch and Market Your Information Product in 2 Weeks or Less! (Make Sh*t Happen Book 4)

Do you actually have stuff - a lot of it - that you are selling RIGHT NOW? How about freebies? Do you have high-value free offers available - multiple - RIGHT NOW? And are you - right now, as in today - working on your latest new creation either free or paid? Is it coming out this week or next? Or are you like the very vast majority of women entrepreneurs out there in that you have a decent free opt in, an eBook and/or program of some kind and then a ton of great ideas which - no matter how awesome they may be - are in fact completely useless because as of right now, this minute, they are not a) growing your list and b) making you money? NEWS FLASH, ABOUT MAKING MONEY ONLINE! None of the pretty stuff, the organised stuff, the so-called must do stuff in your business counts if you're not also regularly CREATING (and finishing; going live with; launching) new stuff both for free and for sale. I'd go so far as to say that if you can't answer yes to all of my above questions (the ones in the last 4 paragraphs) then right now you're failing to be the entrepreneur you really could be, you're failing to share your message or shine your light in the way you were born to do, you are in fact NOT on the path to the wealth and freedom and lifestyle you desire, and worse still you're probably more burnt out and less fulfilled than you thought possible! After all, you got into this whole biz thing because you love to create stuff ... right?! Launch It! is not just a nice story and system for effective launching of online products and programs. For sure we'll cover all of that, but what it's really about is this - You doing what you set out to do. Which is creating the CRAP out of stuff - awesome stuff - and making a ton of money doing it, all the while stepping more and more into living the life you really want. I regularly launch entire membership programs - never mind smaller stuff like coaching programs, eCourses, eBooks, and events and so on - within a 1-3 day period. To me there is nothing worse than having something hang over me for months, becoming seemingly tougher to carry out the more I think about it, wasting time and money usually unnecessarily, and ultimately NOT making me money because its not out there. Think about it: Would you rather launch something perfect (ha!) 6 months from now or would you rather launch it tomorrow, get a few sales on board, get valuable feedback and improve and relaunch it from there? Then in six months from now you can have a fine-tuned and PROFITABLE product or program. Or you have canned something that didnt work. Either way, by then youve long moved on and created a ton MORE stuff. Meanwhile your competitors are coughing up the dust of your wake. Its time to shake off that terrible case of the slow-moving-entrepreneur, time to kill perfectionism and overwhelm with one sound whack to the head and time to work hard - and fast - to get stuff out there that will grow your brand, your biz, your wealth and have your entire industry with their jaws on the floor wondering where the hell you came from and how on earth they can possibly keep up. Its time to launch it, baby!
