

Encountering Jesus in the Gospels

In this welcome and wonderfully accessible book, Father William Mills very skillfully cuts through the fog of the current Jesus wars and helps readers discover for themselves the richly diverse answers provided in the gospels to Jesus own question: Who do you say that I am? Adam DeVille, Ph.D. Assistant Professor of Theology University of Saint Francis, Fort Wayne Indiana At first glance, this book is a study of the names and titles of Jesus, but proves to be far more, as each name proves, in the authors related experience, to be a point of meeting with the Lord. Surely people will have a deeper intimacy with Christ from this brief, but life touching, book. Bishop Seraphim (Sigrist) Retired Bishop of Sendai

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
