

Mackman! Forced Into the Game

Throughout his life, he was forced into various situations far beyond his control, beyond his power, beyond his choice and beyond his liking. However, with his multiple talents, he was capable of achieving practically anything he set his sights on. During the times these situations would arise, even though he would yearn for circumstances to be different, Mackman approached each situation wholeheartedly, and still shined brightly. His natural ability surpassed the expectations of all! In junior high school, he wanted to be the rhythm of the music, maintaining the tempo with each beat of the drums, but his parents forced him to play the trombone, then the violin. In high school, he wanted to advance the football down-field and become the start running back on the team, but his coach forced hi to play an offensive lineman position. As a young adult, he wanted to be a productive citizen, and acquired two legal jobs, one with the city and one with the county. However, a conflict of interest caused him to be fired, and unfortunately, he was Forced Into The Game. Mackman loved it. He lived it. He became a dedicated player. His aptitude enabled him to prevail in the game far beyond the level of his peers. He was prosperous in the game beyond the realm of normal statistics. When he acquired, he acquired a lot., and when he lost, he lost a lot. He became the epitome of the game, an icon for his successors to follow. Now he tells his life story from beginning to end. The triumph of his victories, the agony of his defeats. In his conclusion, he provides important messages for those who have a yearning for street life. The primary focus of this book is on how some people handle the cards dealt them in their lifetime, and to point out the potential results of their trials and tribulations. Moreover, the essence of this book invokes one question: Do you think you could have survived the trials of Mackmans life that youre going to read

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
