

Quality Time: The True Value of Social Media

More than ever, marketers need to understand how they can help and support the precious time between friends the consumers Quality Time. Fewer and fewer people interact through traditional institutions (e.g., church, social clubs, etc.). As people lost touch with friends and neighbors, they lost the need for brands. But Quality Time is back through the new forms of social media. Quality Time shows how to make those interactions and relationships most meaningful and profitable.
