

Creating Connections: Selected Papers of Rob McNeilly (Volume 1)

This book contains 13 papers, written from more than 30 years of McNeilly's experience as a clinician and teacher. He draws on a wide range of ethical and philosophical sources including Lao Tzu and Martin Heidegger and theoretical sources including Ericksonian principles, ontological coaching, and a variety of solution approaches. The topics include contextual, ethical and always practical issues that are a perennial concern for any serious therapist. Readers new to the solution approach and Milton Erickson's contributions will find an elegantly simple place to begin to explore from, while more experienced therapists will benefit from McNeilly's unique, simple yet powerful insights which will add texture and depths to their work. Do you want to increase the effectiveness of your therapy work? Do you want to expand your theoretical, philosophical and practical methods of assisting all problems in all clients? Do you want to find ways of dealing with the most challenging clients, respectfully, rapidly and effectively? This unique collection of papers explores a multitude of essential concerns, and is sure to contribute to any therapist's effectiveness and personal satisfaction. About The Author - Robert McNeilly MBBS Dr. Robert McNeilly was in a suburban Melbourne general medical practice for 10 years, had the privilege of learning directly with Milton Erickson, was inspired by his human approach to therapy, and created his own interpretation to assist clients in a respectful, dignified way with the human dilemmas that affect individuals, couples and families. He founded the CET in 1988 to introduce Ericksonian Hypnosis and the Solution Oriented Approach to hypnosis, counselling and coaching in Australia. For more than 30 years, the contribution he brings in his teaching style, writing and unique approaches to learning and therapy allow for a ready application into everyday living and are recognised locally, nationally and internationally, including repeated invited presentations at the Milton H Erickson Foundations International Congresses in USA since 1980 and workshops in Singapore and Denmark since 1999. He is co-author, with Jenny Brown, of Healing With Words, Healing the Whole Person was published by Wiley, republished as Doing Change by St Lukes Innovative Resources, and Crown House have published a series of DVD demonstrations of counselling and hypnosis. He has published a series of enhanced eBooks on Amazon Kindle. Students comment on his easy, respectful manner and his elegant ability to make complex issues approachable while retaining their essence.
