

Belle Epoque

When Maude Pichon runs away from provincial Brittany to Paris, her romantic dreams vanish as quickly as her savings. Desperate for work, she answers an unusual ad. The Durandeu Agency provides its clients with a unique service: the beauty foil. Hire a plain friend and become instantly more attractive. Monsieur Durandeu has made a fortune from wealthy socialites, and when the Countess Dubern needs a companion for her headstrong daughter, Isabelle, Maude is deemed the perfect adornment of plainness. Isabelle has no idea her new friend is the hired help, and Maude's very existence among the aristocracy hinges on her keeping the truth a secret. Yet the more she learns about Isabelle, the more her loyalty is tested. And the longer her deception continues, the more she has to lose. Inspired by a short story written by Emile Zola, Belle Epoque is set at the height of bohemian Paris, when the city was at the peak of decadence, men and women were at their most beautiful, and morality was at its most depraved. A YASLA William C. Morris Award Finalist, a Junior Library Guild Selection, both touching and fun, this is a story about many things: true friendship, real beauty, being caught between two worlds, and it will delight fans of historical fiction. Publishers Weekly: A refreshingly relevant and inspiring historical venture. Kirkus Reviews: A compelling story about friendship, the complexity of beauty, and self-discovery, full of strong female characters. School Library Journal: With resonant period detail, elegant narration, and a layered exploration of class and friendship, this provocative novel is rife with satisfaction. Booklist: Much to offer a contemporary YA audience, flirtation and match-making to tantalize romance fans, prime book-club fare. The Bulletin: This delectable Parisian tale left me sighing with sweet satisfaction. Jadore: Belle Epoque! -Sonya Sones, author of What My

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
