

To Kill the Irishman: The War That Crippled the Mafia

The story of Danny Greene, a fiercely proud and fearless Irish-American racketeer who took on the Mafia in a spectacular and unprecedented bombing war. The mob tries desperately to kill the Irishman, but with each bungled attempt, Greene's reputation of invincibility grows. After seven attempts, the Irishman is finally killed with a tojan horse bomb car. In death, Greene continues to haunt La Cosa Nostra. As a result of the numerous investigations, several high-ranking Mafia figures betray omerta and become government cooperating witnesses. Their testimony results in the fall of numerous mob bosses in New York, Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, Youngstown, Cleveland and Kansas City. The story has been optioned for a feature film or television movie.

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
