

Afterbirth: Stories You Wont Read in a Parenting Magazine

Afterbirth is about what parenting is really like: full of inappropriate impulses, unbelievable frustrations, and idiotic situations. Its about how life for some parents changes for the worse after their kids are born. Or so it feels. Its about how not every threeyear- old is charming and delightful and about how sometimes when your kid is having a tantrum, you have to stifle the impulse to round-house him. And Afterbirth is funnythe participants are some of the best comic writers and performers today, turning their attention very close to home and sparing no one, particularly themselves. The thirty-five pieces include: Caroline Aaron on what it feels like when the kid moves out of the house (The New Parenting Paradigm) Christie Mellor on why its dangerous to tell people what you really think about being a mommy (Yahooey) Joan Rater on parenting the unexpected (Attachment Adoption) Neil Pollack on unforeseeable and unreasonable parental rage (The Tennis Pro) Matt Weiner on trying not to parent violently like his father did (Go Easy on the Old Man)

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
