

The Avro CF-105 Arrow

The AVRO ARROW was without doubt one of the greatest ever designs for an aircraft to leave the drawing board and the ground. Fast, manoeuvrable, highly advanced, and deadly with a long future, this superb aeroplane was killed by the whims of short sighted politicians. The result was not just the death of this aeroplane but an entire countries aerospace industry, which has never risen again. It was indeed A BLACK FRIDAY for Canada.
