From a broken home. Parents divorced and hooked on drugs. At times, he is living on the streets, doing what he can to live. It seems as if life cannot get any harder, but he just keeps getting beat down. How much more can he take, before he bites the bullet? On the other hand, will he overcome all of these adversities? Is there any way he can find the will power to sustain all of the abuse, and find a happy life. From his girlfriends cheating on him. To friends committing suicide and murder. Will Joseph Harrison find the reason on why he is still here?
