Excerpt from An Address Delivered at Topsfield in Massachusetts, August 28, 1850: The Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Incorporation of the Town Certain portions of the Address here published, were, on account of its length, omitted in the delivery. The preparation of the appendix, and other causes, have delayed its appearance, but not, it is believed, without a compensatory advantage. For the means of giving a likeness of Governor Bradstreet, now for the first time copied and published, I am indebted to Solomon Wildes, Esq., of Boston, and others of the Governors descendants. I acknowledge similar obligations to Asahel Huntington, Esq., of Salem, and to John Cleaveland, Esq., of New-York. Mr. C. M. Endicott lent the use of his engraved steel plate. Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 12th, 1850. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
