

Jamie Peacock No White Flag

Taking the hard hits, making the toughest yards and leading by example in the Super League and international arenas, JP has come through adversity on and off the pitch to become one of the most respected players of his generation. He won the Man of Steel and International Forward of the Year awards, along with a host of other individual honours, while picking up Super League titles and Challenge Cups with Bradford and Leeds. No White Flag is a revelatory and inspirational account of a life in professional sport, from starting out as a skinny youth and being told he wouldn't make the grade to the euphoria of winning the Grand Final with hometown club Leeds. Forthright and to the point, Jamie pulls no punches in describing rugby league as he sees it.

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
