

Shoghi Effendi Through The Pilgrim's Eye: Building the Administrative Order, 1922-1952

The life and work of the Guardian told through accounts by pilgrims and visitors as well as those who worked to assist him. Fascinating . . . thoroughly enjoyable . . . truly inspirational Literature Review Panel of the Baha'is of the United Kingdom Shoghi Effendi Through the Pilgrim's Eye tells the story of the Guardian's ministry from 1922 when the young Shoghi Effendi, just 24 years old, was charged with guiding the affairs of a worldwide Faith. Rather than a biography, it draws on the diary entries and letters (many now published for the first time) of the many pilgrims and visitors to the Baha'i Holy Places in Haifa and Akka, as well as the accounts of those who worked to assist the Guardian in his many extraordinary achievements. As in all such cases, these recollections must be taken in the spirit of pilgrim notes interesting and thought-provoking highlights and observations, but not any part of the Baha'i Sacred Text. They do, however, provide unique insights and inspiration. Volume I (1922-1952) covers the years when the Guardian was laying the foundations of the Baha'i Administrative Order destined to culminate in the World Order of Baha'u'llah, while at the same time planning and carrying out the extension and development of the Shrines of the Bab and Baha'u'llah, translating the Writings of Baha'u'llah as well as The Dawn-Breakers and writing his own major works, as well as facing challenges to his authority and responding to the confiscation of the House of Baha'u'llah in Baghdad and the persecution of Baha'is in Iran and Egypt. The volume ends just before the dramatic decade that was to begin in 1953 with the celebration of the Baha'i Holy Year, the first intercontinental conferences and the launching of the ten-year worldwide spiritual plan to carry the Faith of Baha'u'llah to every place on the planet.

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
