

The Divine Is Not the Cause (The Adidam Revelation Discourses)

Adi Da Samraj answers questions about self-awareness, the nature of the ego, and how the self-contraction is caused in this discourse from October 2004. He speaks of the self-confinement of human beings (in contrast to non-humans as natural contemplatives), the effort to trace any experience or thought to its Source, and the Divine Reality as the True Condition of all things (not the cause of any thing). But he also has something to say about asking questions themselves: All questions are self-caused, or caused by your own presumption, your own self-contraction, your own apparent separation from the Very Condition in which you are arising. The discovery of that which Is Reality Itself, or the very Divine, transcends all causes and effects, all separateness, all difference, all relatedness, all otherness, all problems, all egoity. The universe, in fact, is vanished, utterly Outshined. This remarkable discourse concludes with Adi Das confession of the direct and tacit point of view of Divine Realization the universe as Unconditional Light. Tracks include: The Definition of Egoity, Non-Humans and the Sphere of Energy, Human Beings Are Self-Confined, The Source and the I and There Is No Cause of Conditions, Reality is Undifferentiated Light. This CD is also available in a DVD under the same title

So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
