

DADDYS DEMANDS: True Story

This is a true story of my life from the age of five and up. I suffered from sexual, physical, and mental abuse from not just my father but also many of his friends. I am trying to raise money for anyone that has suffered in this way or anyone that has suffered a terrible life. I am not just telling a story about abuse. I also want to try to help anyone to break free and fight for themselves and others who need help. I am just a plain ordinary person that healed and survived. I wrote about what I went through and how I healed from all of this. I want everyone to know that they cannot blame themselves for this and that they can fight and overcome the heartaches that they try to live with every day. I also want children to read so that they understand that they are not alone. There are so many people that are to frightened to tell someone and they need all the help that they can get. Parents if your child tells you that this has happened to them please believe them and get them help as they usually are always telling you the truth. If they are threatened by their abuser then they are to frightened to talk about it with anyone. If their schooling begins to slip or they try to run away from home then something is wrong so please help them and give them the support that they need. I live in severe pain daily and am disabled but I want to help everyone that I can so please help anyone that you can also. I am a SURVIVER.

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
