

Sex, Food, and God: Breaking Free from Temptations, Compulsions, and Addictions

People from all walks of life give in to temptations and adopt patterns of secrecy and shame. David Eckman reveals how appetites can dominate the lives of men and women, and addictions to sex, pornography, food, chemicals, and even work can take hold. This is a much-needed Christian look at fighting addiction that should be in every church and home. With research support and biblical principles, Eckman shares why unhealthy appetites take root in people how to trade shame for a new identity in Christ why commitment to prayer, confession, and growth protects us Readers will discover how to break the pattern of out-of-control desires and extend grace, not judgment, to those facing such struggles.

Posted: July 26, 2016 in Cheating, Education, Evil, Politics, Religion, Social Issues Tags: Armageddon, bible, Christianity, Conspiracy theory, Prophecy, Y2K 0 end of days Some temptations are just too good to pass up. My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
