

See you at the top of Google: Search engine optimization made effective and simple

This book was written by the author after having gotten his company four times on page one on Google, which provided steady income without any sales work, laying the foundation for a million dollar/year business one year later. This book can put you on the first page of a Google search within hours! You can't afford to ignore the simple steps described in this amazing book. It's not written by a computer geek, so everyone can follow the advices. Learn everything you need to know about homepages, key words, videos and more - to make Google fall in love with YOU!
