

An Historical Discourse: Delivered Before the First Congregational Society in Harvard, Massachusetts, October 22, 1882 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from An Historical Discourse: Delivered Before the First Congregational Society in Harvard, Massachusetts, October 22, 1882

In the latter part of the year 1882, it was my privilege to supply the pulpit of the First Congregational Society in Harvard, for a few Sundays, while the parish was awaiting the time appointed for the installation of their minister, Mr. Maglathlin, to whom a call had been given and accepted. During this period, I was requested by a member of the society to prepare an historical discourse for the following Sunday, to which I assented. The delivery of the sermon, I supposed, would be the only publication which my hastily written performance would receive, but, a person outside of the parish and the town has requested its presentation in its present form to which, knowing its imperfection, I have reluctantly consented.

About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com

This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.

My curiosity got the best of me the other day and I gave in by watching one of those "End of the World" conspiracies videos. This time around the date is set for July 29, 2016. So in three days the biblical prophecies will come true and we will be swallowed up by hell fire while the others who are "saved" will rejoice in the heavens.
