

Dont Miss It-I Almost Did: The Silent Storm on the Horizon

In 1998, Ellen received the first of three messages from God - You will be affected by cancer, but you will be okay. She told her husband, John, of what she heard, but he dismissed it, and in the end so did Ellen. Years later, God quickened her spirit and she was reminded of those messages in 2010 when John was diagnosed with stage four colon cancer. Heartbreakingly honest, Don't Miss It-I Almost Did shares Ellen's story of how God helped her cope with her husband's cancer and untimely death. But even more, she reveals the life lessons she gained from the experience, ones that she would not have learned any other way. Ellen relates the signs of her husband's cancer she saw only in retrospect and talks about life as a widow. She also tells tales from her past, using them to show how God was by her side the entire time, preparing and shaping her for the hard times to come. She speaks openly and frankly about her journey, revealing the difficulty of caring for her husband during his illness, the grief over his death, and the strength she found within the Lord's arms. A story of love, loss, and hope, Don't Miss It-I Almost Did is an inspiring testament to God's faithfulness. It's an amazing story of human trial, adversity, love, and the power of prayer and faith. Ellen finds the good in the most challenging of circumstances - Lieutenant Colonel Garrick Strong, (retired), Cypress, Texas. You will cry, laugh, and praise the Lord! You will be amazed how God went before her every step of the way. Her speaking will capture you as she tells her story and you will hang on every word - Lieutenant Colonel Carol Strong, (retired), Cypress, Texas
