

Second Chances: Love can happen the second time around... (Now, Forever & Always) (Volume 1)

Imagine waking up in bed next to a stranger...NAKED! Samara thought that she had found her soulmate until that one shattering night when fate had played a cruel game on her. Because of her pompous father, she was arranged to marry the son of his potential new business partner in London that she had no clue about. She was not even shown a photograph of him. Was he ugly, was he bald, was he fat? To make things worse, she was not only marrying a complete stranger but she was becoming a mother to his young son. She was not ready to take on either role. She wondered if the child would resent her as she resented her stepmother! She could not go against her father's wishes because he was a prominent business tycoon and her refusal would ultimately cause degradation to her family. She was afraid of disappointing her father and being a disgrace to him. However, Samara would learn soon that no matter how hard you try, the past always catches up with you...
