

The Joy of Living an Organized Life

Give Yourself the Gift of Time! With today's hectic schedules, a gift of time is guaranteed to bring joy to readers. Are you drowning in the details of everyday living? Feeling overwhelmed? Frustrated? Well, this little book offers hundreds of easy-to-implement suggestions to simplify regular routines. From storing Christmas decorations . to grocery shopping . to remembering your favorite wines and movies, this book supplies countless tips on how readers can beat the clock, gain control, and finally relax in today's busy world. Topics and sections are arranged simply and logically for quick and easy reference. Readers can get started immediately by picking and choosing new, valuable and realistic ways to streamline and organize everyday tasks. We may be wired up differently, but we all must dress, eat, sleep, pay bills, buy necessities and manage our time and money. Whether you're male or female, single or married, with or without children, work or stay-at-home, there is something in this book that will improve your lifestyle and save you time! So, gain control today and reward yourself, as well as your friends and family, with a gift of time. You, too, can know the joy of living an organized life.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Viki Vestuto has been in the work force and married for 20 years, and a parent for over ten years. She works with Information Systems in the computer industry, a career path which has strengthened her analytical thinking and played a pivotal role in the preparation of this book. Twenty years of juggling everyday demands on her time, both professionally and personally, have taught her how to avoid wasting time, money and energy.
